

Building a Consumers Health Voice in Tasmania

Call for Board Members – 16 May 2019

We are pleased to advise that Health Consumers Tasmania is calling for Expressions of Interest for our inaugural Board.

This is an exciting opportunity to shape the foundations of Health Consumers Tasmania - a new consumer led state-wide community organisation.

As Board members, you will:

- ensure the organisation has the appropriate strategies in place to allow it to provide leadership across the community and with key stakeholders
- provide governance support and input to ensure the organisation can meet its legal and commercial obligations

Successful applicants will be required to:

- have recent experience and understanding of the Tasmanian Health System
- demonstrate senior management or board governance experience, particularly in not-for-profit organisations
- be committed to consumer-centred health and wellbeing care and the principles of the organisation

Candidates will be selected based on their contribution to the overall profile of the board including:

- skills matrix outlined in the selection criteria
- maximise diversity across age, physical abilities, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation and socio-economic status
- meaningful representation from across the State (North, North West and South) and remote Tasmania
- an ability to attend board meetings, a minimum of six (6) per year

Between 7 and 11 skills-based Director positions to be filled. Please note, those representing for profit organisations will not be eligible to apply.

For further information and a recruitment pack, please visit our website at chf.org.au/health-consumers-tasmania.

To submit your application, in confidence, or for a confidential discussion, please contact Bruce Levett at b.levett@chf.org.au.

Applications will be shortlisted from Monday 3 June 2019.

Bruce Levett, Tasmanian Executive Officer

Kate Griggs, Policy Officer